LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

To promote the four key licensing objectives within Machiato Ltd, we will implement a series of comprehensive measures that integrate seamlessly with the operation and layout of our cafe. Our approach focuses on maintaining a safe, secure, and community-friendly environment. These measures include:

CCTV

Our premises are equipped with continuous CCTV recording to monitor all activities within and around the cafe. This system not only deters potential criminal behaviour but also aids in quick resolution should any disputes or incidents arise.

Staff training

All staff members are rigorously trained in public safety, crime prevention, and child protection measures. This training ensures they are well-prepared to manage and escalate any situations that may occur, maintaining a safe environment for all patrons.

Incident management

We maintain an incident management log onsite to record any occurrences of crime, disorder, or safety issues. This allows us to review and improve our preventative measures continually.

Community engagement

We aim to foster a positive relationship with the local community and authorities by ensuring that our operations do not disrupt the local environment. This includes managing noise levels and keeping the area around the premises clean and free from litter.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Robust surveillance system

By utilising an always-on CCTV system covering all areas accessible to the public, we aim to deter criminal behaviour and quickly address any incidents. Staff are trained to operate the CCTV system and to preserve footage that may be required by law enforcement.

Staff vigilance

Staff are trained to be vigilant and proactive in identifying and managing any signs of disorder or suspicious activities. Their training includes how to safely approach and manage conflicts among patrons.

Incident logging and review

Every incident related to crime or disorder is logged in detail in our incident management book. These logs are reviewed regularly to identify patterns or recurring issues, allowing us to adjust our operational strategies accordingly.

c) Public safety

Fire safety and emergency procedures

Our premises are equipped with dedicated fire panels along with emergency buttons. All staff are trained on emergency procedures to ensure rapid and coordinated responses to any situation, ensuring patron safety at all times.

Clear access for emergency services

We maintain clear and unobstructed access into the premises, with clearly marked gangways that comply with local council regulations. This ensures that emergency services can quickly and efficiently access the premises in case of emergencies.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise management

We will manage noise levels by providing clear, visible notices within our establishment promoting low noise levels. This measure will help maintain a pleasant atmosphere for both patrons inside the cafe and the surrounding residential community.

Litter management

Regular external checks will be conducted by our staff to ensure the area around the premises is free from litter. This not only maintains the aesthetic appeal of our local area but also aligns with our commitment to being a responsible business in the community.

Control of external doors and windows

To further prevent nuisance, all external doors and windows will be closed except for entry and exit purposes. This will help contain noise within the premises and minimize disturbance to our neighbors.

e) The protection of children from harm

Challenge 25 policy

We operate a Challenge 25 policy to prevent underage alcohol sales. Clear and prominent signage will be displayed at the entrance and inside at the counter area, notifying customers that anyone who appears under 25 will be asked for ID before being sold alcohol.

Staff training on ID verification

All staff involved in the sale of alcohol will receive comprehensive training on verifying IDs under the Challenge 25 policy. This includes understanding which forms of ID are acceptable and how to handle refusals effectively.

No alcohol sales to underage customers

Strict compliance with legal requirements will be enforced, ensuring that no-one under the age of 18 years will be served, or permitted to consume, alcohol on the premises. This includes clear training and directives to staff regarding the sale of alcohol to minors.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
