What is our purpose for processing your personal data

The main purposes for which we may process your personal information include:

- The processing of licensing applications (including inspections / advisory visits)
- The processing of payments in relation to licensing functions, fines and statutory notices
- To investigate relevant complaints or enquiries
- To carry out pro-active enforcement activities to ensure compliance
- To allow us to communicate and provide relevant information in relation to licensing and changes in legislation
- To keep a public register in relation to the licences we have issued
- For the prevention and/or detection of fraud and/or crime

if we intend to process your personal data for a purpose other than that for which the personal data was collected, we shall provide you details of that other purpose before we start processing your data.

What is the legal basis for our use of your personal data

- We need it to comply with a legal obligation
- We need it to perform a task in the public interest or in the exercise of public authority
- The Council will be processing criminal offence data in an official capacity

What we do if your personal data is sensitive

We will only process your sensitive personal data with your consent, unless we can lawfully process it for another reason permitted by law. We will notify you if it is sensitive and as with non-sensitive personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent to processing at any time by letting us know. Sensitive data is data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade-union membership, genetic and biometric data, data concerning health or data concerning a natural persons sex life or sexual orientation.

For how long will we hold your personal data

We will only keep your personal data for as long as we need to in order to fulfil the purpose[s] for which it is collected and for so long afterwards as we consider it may be required to deal with any questions or complaints about the service which we provide to you, unless we elect to retain your data for a longer period in order to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.
